DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

Ph.D. Program, M.S. Program, M.A.T. Program

Tuition waivers and stipends available for FALL 2019
Applications will be evaluated starting January 1, 2019

Award-winning teachers, faculty expertise in a wide range of research areas, and abundant opportunities for one-on-one student and faculty collaboration distinguish our program.

Mathematics Department Graduate Faculty

José Carrión	Ph. D., Purdue University. Operator Algebras, K-theory
Ze-Li Dou	Ph.D., Princeton University. Number Theory
Greg Friedman	Ph.D., New York University. Algebraic and Geometric Topology
George T. Gilbert	Chair, Ph.D., Harvard University. Discrete and Applied Mathematics, Number Theory
Eric Hanson	Ph.D., Colorado State University. Applied Geometry &amp; Topology, Data Analysis
Rhonda L. Hatcher	Ph.D., Harvard University. Number Theory
Dennis Ledis	Ph.D., University of Florida. Dynamical Systems
Scott Nollet	Ph.D., University of California, Berkeley. Algebraic Geometry
Efton Park	Ph.D., Stony Brook University. K-Theory, Operator Algebras
Igor Prokhoronkov	Ph.D., Rice University. Differential Geometry and Global Analysis
Ken Richardson	Ph.D., Rice University. Differential Geometry and Global Analysis
Loren Spice	Ph.D., University of Chicago. Harmonic Analysis and Representations of <math>p</math>-adic Groups
Susan G. Staples	Ph.D., University of Michigan. Real and Complex Analysis
Drew Tomlin	Ph.D., University of North Texas. Algebra
Fred Xavier	Ph.D., University of Rochester. Differential Geometry
Qiao Zhang	Ph.D., Columbia University. Analytic Number Theory and Arithmetic Geometry
